

I received a letter the other day from my Air1 radio station and was devastated when I learned of the news that I may lose my radio service. This station has been such a blessing to me and my husband. I cannot imagine a day without it. If this program is displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing another program our community will be at a great loss. People all over our city have grown to know Jesus Christ through the ministry of this great station. It is more than a radio program, it is LIFE!!! God moves through this program and I cannot begin to tell you how many times I have heard the right song at the right time. I've heard numerous stories over the radio of people wanting to commit suicide and they "happen" to end up on this station. I don't believe in coincidences. Those are called divine appointments that have literally saved people's lives. This station brings hope to the hopeless, strength for the weak and courage to the fearful. This station helps people to see that there is a God that loves them and it's not about religion, but about a personal relationship with the creator of the universe. Please reconsider the possibilities of taking this station from us. I know it may not look like it, but it is truly hard to put into words what this station has meant to me personally, to our city, to our country and to the world. Air1 can be heard on-line so there are people all over the world that are listening, even our soldiers in Iraq. This station is not just a program, but it is made up of people that love Jesus that are being obedient to do the will of their Heavenly Father. The greatest commandments are that we know God and make Him known. Air1 helps to make God known to those that need Him and also helps those that already know Him to grow in their walk with Him. Air1 is more than a FM translator service that can be pushed aside to make room for "more important" stations. There is no greater thing in this world than knowing Jesus Christ personally. He's the greatest friend you will ever meet. Please don't take the opportunity away from those that don't know Him. Please reconsider.

Prayerfully yours,
Nicole Radina
